

WRITTEN BY TODD SKLAR AND ALEX RENNIE

LOGLINE

Estranged brothers Jim and Dave must travel to Branson together when their father dies and leaves them the family lake home. A series of hilarious mishaps and costly misadventures follow as they attempt to restore the house and rebuild their relationship.

SYNOPSIS

Jim and Dave are brothers. They haven't seen each-other in years, but when their father unexpectedly dies, they're forced to travel down to Branson together to redeem their inheritance; the family's lake home. Upon arriving, they find that the house is in terrible condition, and worse-yet, they'll have to fix it themselves before they can sell it and receive their money. What follows is a series of hilarious mishaps and costly misadventures that ultimately help the two brothers rebuild their strained relationship as they attempt to restore the house they grew up in.

DIRECTOR BIO

In 1994, Todd Sklar won "Best Blocked Shots" in his 5th grade basketball league. In 2007, he wrote & directed his feature length debut, BOX ELDER, which became a cult hit after Sklar & his cast toured it across the country that year. In 2008, he founded Range Life Entertainment, a privately held marketing company that tours independent films to college campuses on a quarterly basis. In 2012, he premiered '92 SKYBOX ALONZO MOURNING ROOKIE CARD at the Sundance Film Festival, and most recently, he wrapped on a TV pilot for College Humor. AWFUL NICE is his 2nd feature, and is an adaptation / extension of the award-winning '92 SKYBOX short.
